ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance at lectures and laboratories is required. Two or more unexcused lab misses will result in an F grade for Chem 1121. Missed labs cannot be made up. You may be excused from lab for illness (provided a doctor's note is made available to me clearly stating the days you were ill), or because of hazardous weather conditions.

EXCUSED ABSENCE POLICY

In case of illness, accident, family emergency, or university-sponsored activity, you may be excused from labs, quizzes, and/or homework. In case of a missed exam, a make-up exam will be provided.

For university-sponsored activities, an official excused absence slip must be obtained. This must be obtained in advance of the activity and given to the instructor one-week before your absence.

For other absences, suitable documentation (such as a doctor's note, police accident report, etc.) must be provided within one-week of the excused absence. For absences longer than one week, an academic dean or the dean of students may issue you an excused absence which you can present to your instructor.

Unexcused absences will result in a grade of zero for the assignment.

MASTERINGCHEMISTRY You should log on and create your account as soon as possible! Online homework will be assigned on a weekly basis. The homework set may consist of tutorials, homework problems, and review problems. Each homework set will be made available on Friday by 5 P.M., and will be due the following Friday by 5 P.M.

- You will be able to access online assignments on Blackboard. They are located in the “Online Assignments” tab on the left side of the screen. The first time you take an assignment you will be required to log onto your MasteringChemistry account. After doing so, your account will be linked to SSU’s BlackBoard site, and you will not have to log in separately.
- The inclusive-access course-fee provides you with access to the textbook and an account with MasteringChemistry at a significant cost savings. The access-code for MasteringChemistry (for students who do not opt out of the inclusive-access plan) is: PSCMGE-FZZZZ-RISEN-SWEET-MINOT-ACHES

HOMEWORK

Problem solving is an essential part of your study of chemistry. As you study, you should be working problems from your textbook on each topic. It is strongly suggested that you work the following problems which will serve as a guide for material for quizzes and exams. The answers and worked-out solutions are available to you in the solutions manual for the even-numbered questions in the book. Answers to the even-numbered questions are found at the end of our textbook.

Chapter 1:	36, 44, 48, 56, 62, 68, 78, 88, 90

DISABILITIES

Any student who believes s/he may need an academic accommodation based on the impact of a documented disability should first contact a Coordinator in the Office of Accessibility Services, Hatcher Hall, 740-351-3106 to schedule a meeting to identify potential reasonable academic accommodation(s). Students are strongly encouraged to initiate the academic accommodation process in the early part of the semester or as soon as the need is recognized. After meeting with the Coordinator, students are encouraged to meet with their instructors during the instructor's office hours to discuss their specific needs related to their disability. The academic accommodation letter will be sent to the instructor and student via secure e-mail prior to the semester start date. Any questions regarding the academic accommodations on the letter should be addressed to the Coordinator of Accessibility Services. If a student does not make a timely request for academic accommodations and/or fails to meet with the Coordinator of Accessibility Services, a reasonable academic accommodation might not be able to be provided.

GENERAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

Chemistry 1121 counts towards the Natural Science component of the General Education Program (GEP) and addresses Scientific Reasoning.

WHO SHOULD TAKE THIS COURSE?

The typical audience for this course are: health-science, nursing, medical laboratory technology, and middle-childhood education majors. You may also be taking this course if you are interested in chemistry (yay!), are seeking to satisfy the natural sciences general education category, or curious about how things work.

IS CHEMISTRY HARD?

Yes. But not impossible. Consider setting aside several hours a week to practice end-of-chapter homework problems, forming a study group, re-reading your MasteringChemistry assignments, reading the textbook, and quizzing yourself. Reviewing old material every few weeks has been shown to dramatically improve retention of material in college!

DO I HAVE TO ATTEND EVERY LECTURE?

Not attending lecture tends to correlate with doing poorly in chemistry. Do not get into the habit of missing class if you can possibly avoid it. At mid-term I will be reporting your expected grade and attendance to the Registrar. This information will be provided to your academic advisor(s), as well as student support services.

LABORATORY INFORMATION

Safety goggles or visorgogs are required to be worn for all laboratories. They must meet ANSI Z87 requirements (normally this information is permanently stamped on the goggles). Laboratory coats are recommended, but not required.

Full length pants or full-length skirts are required to be worn in lab. Shoes that cover all parts of your feet are also required.

If you are improperly dressed for lab, you will be asked to leave and awarded a zero for the lab assignment.

You must remain in lab with your lab partner until the lab report is turned in. If you leave lab early you will be counted as absent and will receive a zero.

Lab reports must be turned in at the end of each lab. Late lab reports will not be accepted. Turned in lab reports must have your full name and your lab partner's full name clearly written on the front page to receive a grade. Professor Vincent George will be teaching the Wednesday laboratory part of the course. His contact information is:

Telephone: (740) 351-3895 or (740) 351-3456
